

HRDC DUNLOP ALLSTARS

INCORPORATING CLASSIC ALFA CHALLENGE

GT and Saloon Cars of a type which racegoers at Castle Combe in the mid-1960s will doubtless remember vividly as staples of allcomers events populate the HRDC's Dunlop All Stars race. Sixty years on, this mixed-discipline miscellany, bolstered by the Classic Alfa Challenge set to excite marque tifosi, provides the largest of ringmaster Julius Thurgood's three grids today.

Marc Gordon is a previous race winner here in his Jaguar XK150S, but the fleet Lotus Elans, while overpowered, will relish the Esses and Bobbies deviations, where crisp handling will trump all. Neil Horton was very rapid in the wet last year at the wheel of his Bernie Rodger-designed Triumph-engined Peerless GT. New to the strong Mini Cooper S posse is former Clubmans and single-seater hillclimber Piers Thynne, whose late father Sheridan was Frank Williams' F1 sponsorship guru in the local team's pomp.

The Alfa brigade is headed by Gavin Watson's beautiful blue GTAm, James Colburn's two-litre Giulia Sprint GT and the shrill Alfased Ti of Bristolian Mike Thorne. Jake Margalies is also in the Corsa class in his sonorous GTV6, presented in Andy Rouse/ICS tribute livery. Meanwhile enthusiast Oxford single-seater racer Tim Child's classic Bertone 105-shaped 2000 GTV of 1974 meets later coupe cousins in the Nord group.
